VALIDATION OF MEMBERSHIP

After receipt of full payment of the membership fee you are a member in good standing until the end of the calendar year 2018.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS

Ordinary members in good standing shall be entitled to participate in all events of the Society and to use the facilities of the Society. Corporate members shall have the right to nominate three persons as ordinary members who shall be accepted according to the conditions laid down for the class of membership concerned. Partner Societies and associated members shall only be entitled to receipt of the Society's regular information material. Associate members may have online access to the official society journal MAGMA upon payment of a pre-defined fee. Associate members have to become ordinary members in order to participate in events of the Society and to use the facilities of the Society.

Ordinary members and honorary members in good standing shall have the right to vote and to elect officers. The right to stand for elections, however, shall be reserved for ordinary and honorary members who have their place of residence in Europe.

Members shall be obliged to further the interests of the Society as far as their resources permit it and to refrain from activities that could harm the image and purpose of the Society. Members are to observe the statutes of the Society as well as the decisions taken by the bodies of the Society. Both ordinary and corporate members shall be obliged to pay the membership dues in the amount determined by the Annual Business Meeting in time.

TERMS OF TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall expire through death (in the case of corporations, companies or other organizations including commercial enterprises through the loss of their legal personality), voluntary withdrawal, cancellation or exclusion.

VOLUNTARY WITHDRAWAL

Voluntary withdrawal shall be possible at any time. It is to be notified to the Executive Board at the address of the ESMRMB office (office@esmrm.org) in writing at least 1 month prior to the end of the calendar year, preceding the year in which the withdrawal shall become effective. If the notification occurs late, the withdrawal shall become effective at the next withdrawal date, which is the end of the calendar year following the notification of withdrawal.

CANCELLATION

Cancellation of membership may be decided by the Executive Board if the member is, despite two written reminders, more than two months in arrears with the payment of his/her membership dues. The annual membership fee shall be paid until the end of the current year. Cancellation shall not affect the member's obligation to pay the unsettled dues of the current year.

EXCLUSION

Exclusion from the Society may be decreed by the Executive Board on grounds of a serious violation of membership obligations or of dishonourable conduct. Appeal to the Business Meeting against exclusion shall be possible. The membership rights shall be suspended until a decision is taken by the Business Meeting.

WITHDRAWAL OF HONORARY MEMBERSHIP

Withdrawal of honorary membership may be decided by the Business Meeting upon request by the Executive Board.
